

Fox Corporation (the “Company”)
Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter
(adopted March 2019)

I. Purpose and Authority

The Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) has established a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) with the authority and responsibilities described below.

The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm assisting the Committee in identifying director candidates and to retain counsel and any other advisors as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. The Committee shall have sole authority to approve related fees and terms of any advisors that it retains. The Committee may delegate its authority to one or more subcommittees or the Chairman of the Committee when it deems appropriate and in the best interests of the Company.

II. Composition and Meetings

Subject to the applicable transition periods under the listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”), the Committee shall consist entirely of directors who the Board determines are “independent” in accordance with the Nasdaq rules. The members of the Committee and the Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed and may be removed by the Board.

The Committee shall meet as often as it deems is appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Chairman of the Committee, in consultation with the other Committee members, shall set meeting agendas. The Committee shall report its actions and recommendations to the Board.

III. Responsibilities

In addition to any other responsibilities which may be assigned from time to time by the Board of Directors, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

- To manage a succession planning process for the Board and key leadership roles on the Board and the Board committees;
- To develop and recommend to the Board criteria for identifying and evaluating director candidates and periodically review these criteria;
- To review the qualifications of candidates for director suggested by Board members, stockholders, management and others in accordance with criteria recommended by the Committee and approved by the Board and the criteria set forth in the Company’s Statement of Corporate Governance;

- To maintain procedures for the consideration of Board candidates recommended for the Committee's consideration by the Company's stockholders;
- To consider the performance and independence of incumbent directors in determining whether to nominate them for reelection;
- To recommend to the Board a slate of nominees for election or reelection to the Board at each annual meeting of stockholders;
- To recommend to the Board candidates to be elected to the Board as necessary to fill vacancies and newly created directorships;
- To make recommendations to the Board as to determinations of director independence;
- To recommend to the Board retirement and term policies, if any, for directors;
- To regularly review the composition of the Board and its committees and make recommendations to the Board concerning the function, composition and structure of the Board and its committees;
- To periodically review the Board's leadership structure and, as appropriate, recommend changes to the Board;
- To establish, together with all independent directors, the frequency of executive sessions in which only independent directors will participate and over which the Lead Director shall preside; provided, however, that if no Lead Director has been appointed, the Chairman of the Committee shall preside over such meetings;
- To recommend to the Board directors to serve as members and chairpersons of each committee;
- To develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles, to review those principles no less than annually and to recommend changes to those principles, as necessary;
- To advise and make recommendations to the Board on corporate governance matters, to the extent these matters are not the responsibility of other committees of the Board;
- To develop and conduct, in coordination with the Lead Director, an annual self-evaluation process for the Board;
- To review communications from the Company's stockholders;
- To oversee the Company's stockholder engagement, and make recommendations to the Board regarding its involvement in stockholder engagement and the Company's response to stockholder proposals, other than proposals involving compensation matters;

- To evaluate the Committee’s performance at least annually and report to the Board on such evaluation;
- To oversee Fox News’s performance of its commitments to a business practice and corporate value of zero tolerance for sexual harassment, race discrimination, and all other forms of discrimination prohibited by law as well as of zero tolerance for retaliation, and a corporate policy that creates a safe, productive and welcoming workplace for all of their employees;
- To oversee the activities of the Fox News Workplace Professionalism and Inclusion Council (the “Council”), which shall report directly to the Committee and separately to the Chief Executive Officer of Fox News;
- To meet with the Council at least once per year; provided that the Chairman of the Committee shall meet with the Council at least twice per year;
- To periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval; and
- To perform such other duties and responsibilities as are consistent with the purpose of the Committee and as the Board or the Committee shall deem appropriate.
